Magicians Never Reveals Their Tricks

Steve Kubby played a key role in the drafting and passage of California Proposition 215, the California law permitting the use of medical cannabis.

- He holds the first cannabis plant patent, US0PP027475.

Question and Hypothesis

Question of the day.

- Can we identify plants that are statistical outliers that may make good patent candidates?

Thank you for coming.

Insights of the Day

- The good magician makes you look were the magic isn't happening.
